Food

- There will be snacks backstage but we can't offer any actual dinner
- Where to buy:
    - COOP (Food/ Convenience store) is just around the corner
    - At the venue - you get a discount
        - https://2lang.se/mat-dryck/
- When to eat:
    - Anytime it suits you from soundcheck to show start
- Where to eat
    - You can eat at the audience area until the doors open (18:00)
    - After that you can eat in the backstage area. Try to keep the food away from costumes and make up/glitter.

Stage

- The stage is 6,75m wide & 3m deep
- Stage entrance
    - Entrance is a big step up on stage left (audience Right)
    - The backstage area is behind the audience so you have to walk through the audience ca 10 meters to reach the stage entrance
    - You can do a hidden entrance by hiding in a room behind the stage and walk through a door directly on stage. You still need to walk visible to get to that room or hide there before the show start. And be quiet when hiding.
- The first row of audience is quite close (ca 0,5 meters)
- The backstage area has a good amount of space but not enough mirrors

Bingo

- How the bingo works:
    - The audience will receive bingo tiles with 5x5 words on them of things that they might see on stage (for example glove peel, shimmy, hat)
    - After each act the host will give the audience a few minutes to check for words and fill in their tile
    - A complete row means BINGO
    - BINGO winners will go up to the stage, get their tiles checked from our bingo judge and then choose a prize from our sponsors
    - After that the host will go forward with the show and present next act
- How it affects you:
    - Barely anything. This is a regular burlesque show. The audience is thaught to cheer and clap as they should
    - The audience might cheer at unusual times if they see a word they have.
    - The time in between acts will be a bit longer than usual to find winners and hand out prizes
    - Before the show we will ask you to fill in the BINGO-word list in your Info-sheet, with the words that you know will be in our act. This helps our bingo judge be prepared of what's to come.

Payment

- Compensation:

    - SEK 1000 + Travel Costs (up to SEK 700) + Tip
- There are two ways to get payed
    - Reimbursement for expenses (up to the compensation limit)
        - SAVE YOUR RECEIPTS!
        - It is preferred that the receipts are things you've bought for the show, but NOT NECESSARY FOR THE SHOW. The most important part is that they can be interpreted as likely for the show. For example:

            - Make up
            - Fabric

Photo + Video

- All acts will be filmed and photographed professionally by
    - Photograf Walka https://www.instagram.com/fotografwalka/
- Our photographer will be at the venue early to shoot some photos of soundcheck and backstage fun. We will adapt his presence in the backstage area to what you all are comfortable with.
- You will receive photos and film within a month after the show (probably shorter)
- The photographer have to be credited whenever possible
- You can do pretty much whatever you want with the photos, BUT NOT:
    - 1. Sell them without negotiating with the photographer
    - 2. Media/ Press has to pay for use. If the situation arises where a newspaper or similar wants to use an image, contact the photographer so that he can decide in which context it should be used and if/how much they should pay
    - 3. Change/edit images with filters etcetera. Cropping is ok.
